Contents
This module focuses on another particular theme related to contemporary and/or historical music-making within its sociocultural context. The theme will be explored from interdisciplinary and transcultural perspectives. Applications to case studies from diverse musical idioms and cultures will be examined. Course topics and themes covered may vary from semester to semester.
Intended learning outcomes
Upon successful completion of this module, students should be able to: demonstrate an increased breadth of understanding of ethnomusicological theoretical frameworks through a familiarity with a particular socio-musical theme that they have not previously studied; demonstrate a critical awareness of how to apply the theme to case studies from diverse cultural contexts; and effectively communicate their own ideas in written and/or verbal form.
