Contents
In this module, the sources, musical testimonies and cultural-historical conditions of European music history and their music-historiographical interpretation are studied. The focus is on persons, phenomena and processes of music history. Using significant examples, the basics of specific methods of the Humanities (e.g. philological, descriptive, comparative and analytical methods) and speaking about music (e.g. specialist terminology, metaphor) are provided, reflected and practised.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has exemplary knowledge of European music history, its sources and its phenomena. He/she is able to classify this knowledge in historical contexts. On this basis, the student is able to present and interpret music-historical phenomena appropriately.
