Contents
In this module, the conditions and forms of musical communication, especially with regard to the production and reception of music are studied. The object is to analyse the relationship between the producer (sender) and receiver of music in different musical cultures and historical contexts. In addition to general methods of music sociology, music psychology and music-related reception research, theoretical approaches of semiotics and general communication theory will be applied.
Intended learning outcomes
The student has a sound knowledge of the analysis of musical communication. He/she is able to differentiate sociologically and psychologically between different forms of music playing and to create corresponding models of musical communication.
